

Johnson Wants Draft Age Down to 17

By W. B. RAGSDALE JR.
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson will ask Congress to lower the draft age from 18 to 17 to give his "war on poverty" a chance to aid needy youngsters a year earlier, an official source reported today.

These subjects for the war on poverty, the source said, will be the 500,000 each year who fail the Army's General Classification Test. They will be given a chance to enter special work schools where they will take special education and vocational courses.

This is a key provision in the message on poverty, expected to go to Congress today or Tuesday.

Searching for a practical approach to the problem of school dropouts, the task force assisting Sargent Shriver, head of the war on poverty, decided the draft was the ideal screening device to pinpoint young men who need extra help.

All youngsters must take a general psychological and intelligence test when they register for the draft at 18.

"There are some 500,000 youngsters each year who fail this test," the high official source said. "You know if they fail this test, they're probably going to fail any test, and they're probably not going to be able to hold down any decent job."

"If Selective Service hadn't existed, we probably would have had to create it. It's perfect for our purpose. This gives us names and addresses of persons who need help."

Originally, the source said, Shriver wanted to lower the draft age to 16, but technical problems made this impossible. He added, "that lowering it to 17 gives us a year's head start in trying to reclaim these youths."

The special schools, or academies as they probably will be called, will be similar to the work camps of the old Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) in that they will remove underprivileged youngsters from poor home environments.

But instead of concentrating on outdoor work projects as did the CCC of New Deal days, the new academies will lean heavily on education and vocational projects.

New Garner Book About Teen-Agers

Farrar, Straus & Company takes pleasure in announcing the publication of "Word of Honor," by Claud Garner and Ruth Adams Knight. This is Mr. Garner's fourth novel, and his first book for teen-agers.

In describing his departure from adult novels, Mr. Garner, native of Hope, says: "I had never written a juvenile, and soon realized I was in a different field entirely. I asked my editor to have an experienced juvenile author read my manuscript and evaluate the story."

Ruth Adams Knight, the author of many successful juvenile books, read my manuscript, and we worked out a mutually satisfactory collaboration."

The book tells of a fatherless boy's struggle to rebuild his family's old farm in Kentucky's bluegrass country. Unexpected help comes when he meets an old Mexican cowboy who has a way with animals and boys. Together they work to make the land rich and productive again.

Mr. Garner lives in Weatherford, Texas with his wife. His previous books are "Webback," which won the Texas Institute of Letters award, "Cornbread Aristocrat," and "The Young Texans."

Arkansan One of the 25 Rescued

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Tommy Matthews, 27, of the Spring Hill community near Greenbrier in Faulkner county, was one of 25 crew members rescued Friday after the tanker Bunker Hill exploded and sank off the coast of Washington state.

Matthews telephoned his brother Carlos Matthews of Faulkner County after the rescue that he was all right and suffered only a few scratches and burns.

Tommy was also aboard the S.S. Parkway when it sank off the California coast about 10 years ago.

Indecision Cloud in New Hampshire

By JACK BELL

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—A cloud of indecision which could have a telling effect on the choice of the Republican presidential nominee hung heavily today over the outcome of Tuesday's New Hampshire primary.

There was widespread evidence that a significant number of Republicans who will go to the polls Tuesday to mark one of the more complex ballots in presidential preference primary history still are debating their choice.

This highlighted an invitation for upsets in a contest which Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., once was supposed to win handily in a battle with New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Though Rockefeller and Goldwater seemed likely to pace the field of five official and two write-in entries, partisans thought that Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam, might come up to challenge them.

Lodge and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the 1960 presidential nominee, were represented in write-in campaigns. If these were successful in gaining a substantial share of the nearly 100,000 Republican votes expected to be cast, it could project them forcefully into the presidential nomination contest.

For Goldwater, the conservative, and Rockefeller, the moderate, there was the psychological need to win this contest, their first outing. Both vowed to continue their quest for nomination in victory or defeat.

But both looked to the June 2 California primary as the payoff derby after running this preliminary heat.

Almost nothing was heard of support for former Minnesota Gov. Harold E. Stassen, once a power in Republican councils.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, whose name also appears on the ballot, might have done better in New Hampshire if she had not returned to Washington to protect her never-absent Senate roll call record.

Gordon Likely to Change His Mind

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP)—Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon of Morrilton is giving second thoughts to his announced decision not to seek re-election.

He said Saturday that a lot of people have been trying to get him to change his mind.

Gordon said he will wait until the special session of the legislature before making a final decision. Such a session is due to be called to deal with voter registration.

Roy Riales of Mena, a former state senator, has filed as a candidate for the office.

Johnson, Lodge in Mock Vote

ELLENBURG, Wash. (AP)—Students at Central Washington State College have nominated President Johnson and Henry Cabot Lodge for president in mock Democratic and Republican national conventions.

It took the Democrats three ballots and the Republicans five.

Johnson ended up with 313 votes to 30 for Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, and 27 for Gov. George Wallace of Alabama. Lodge got 225½ votes to 109½ for Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Thirty-seven college students will appear in court today on charges stemming from what one policeman termed a "regular orgy" at a well-known downtown hotel.

The defendants, 22 males and 15 females, were arrested early Sunday when police raided a fraternity dance and rooms at the Claypool Hotel because of noisy conduct.

"What they had was a regular orgy," said Robert Gigure, a vice squad patrolman. "We would have had to get a pickup truck to haul all the beer cans away."

The officer said one student, dressed only in shorts, was arrested as he chased a coed down a hallway. Several coeds were dressed only in negligees.

The charges included entering the bedroom of a member of the opposite sex, disorderly conduct, public indecency, underage drinking and larceny.

One student was seized with a neon telephone sign taken from the hotel lobby.

The male students and their dates were attending an annual statewide undergraduate meeting of Phi Delta Theta social fraternity. Police said about 600 students were attending the convention. The defendants are students at Indiana, Purdue and DePauw universities and Washburn and Hanover colleges.

An excise officer said he found students drinking at the fraternity's dance. He called police who stopped the dance on the mezzanine and then heard loud noise from upper floors of the hotel.

Gigure said beer cans and bottles were being thrown out of hotel windows onto Washington Street, which carries U.S. 40 traffic through the heart of Indianapolis.

Tracing the noise from room to room, police made the arrests.

It took two hours and a dozen paddy wagon trips to take the young people to jail, where they spent several hours until bonds were made. All were released on bond by Sunday night.

One of the coeds commented: "That's what I always wanted, a criminal police record. A good thing to tell you kids, I spent the night in the pokie, picked up on sex charges." That slays me."

One man bailing his daughter out of jail said, "I thought she had been in an accident when police called. Thank God it's only this."

The Stamps victims Grady E. Welch, 58, and his 59-year-old wife were found dead in their bedroom by a son who forced his way into the home when he could get no one to answer the door.

Coroner Charles Cross of Lafayette County ruled the deaths due to accidental gas poisoning, and said a gas leak in a water heater caused the deaths.

Tim Franklin, 33, was killed Sunday morning at his Hamburg home when he was hit twice on the head with an ax, Chief Deputy J. B. Stell said. Franklin's wife, Ida Bell Franklin, 23, was being held by the Ashley County Sheriff's office.

Justice Arthur J. Goldberg, in a concurring opinion joined by Justice William O. Douglas, said the court was announcing today a constitutional standard that prohibits a public official from recovering damages for a defamatory falsehood relating to his official conduct, "unless he proves that the statement was made with actual malice—that is, with knowledge that it was false or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not."

Performance Testing Results

THIRTY BULLS WHICH RECENTLY COMPLETED performance testing at the Southwest Branch Experiment Station at Hope are study topic at an informal study day on Monday, March 9. In the picture Dr. C. J. Brown grading the top gain in bull owned by Arch Smith of Texarkana.

Performance testing of the bulls was completed last week. It was the Station's second 154 day test. Activities will start at 10:00 a.m. and all bulls on the test will be on exhibit. Test results will be discussed by Dr. C. J. Brown and Cecil Bittle of the Experiment Station staff.

And a grading demonstration will be conducted by University of Arkansas Extension Animal Husbandmen, Carl E. Luckner and Robert B. Hallmark.

Interested visitors will also have a chance to tour the Experiment Station.

Extension Husbandman Luckner reports, "Bulls in the test have gained very satisfactorily an average of 1.5 pounds per head per day. Instead of having an auction sale, breeders are selling 21 of these bulls at private treaty."

There are 9 Angus, 10 Hereford and 2 Shorthorns in the group offered for sale. Nine of these bulls have high conformation scores which would indicate that they are good enough to be used in registered herds. Rate of gain records indicate that several of these bulls could help cattle producers with herd improvement programs."

Indications point to such a move after the November elections.

Informed sources said McNamara has shown increasing skepticism about the value of Guard and Reserve units that would not be ready for use in emergencies, but would be mobilized only in event of a long war.

This could put in jeopardy 15 National Guard infantry and armor divisions and 6 Reserve infantry divisions which now have a lower priority—and with that lower priority, fewer men and less modern equipment.

The states and Guard-Reserve backers and Congress could be expected to battle any drive to reduce these forces even further.

It costs about $7 million a division to maintain the low-priority outfits for a year, or a total of $147 million annually.

The Army considers this investment worthwhile because it provides a base for general mobilization.

A little more than a year ago the Guard ran up the surrender flag after its state chiefs and a group of governors unsuccessfully sought a drastic overhaul.

In that reorganization, four National Guard and four Reserve divisions, plus 731 smaller units, were dropped from the rolls as unneeded or obsolete.

South Leaders Plan Civil Rights Strategy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southern opponents called a strategy session today in advance of the start of an expected lengthy Senate battle over a broad new civil rights bill.

Sen. Richard B. Russell D-Ga., leader of the Dixie forces who have fought similar legislation in the past, called his supporters to a closed meeting.

Some senators said the floor struggle may last for weeks or even months but few were trying to predict how or when it will end.

The 10-point measure, which cleared the House 290-130 four weeks ago and has President Johnson's firm support, represents a broad attempt to advance the rights of Negroes.

Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana will make the first move soon after the Senate convenes with a simple motion to consider the bill.

The motion is debatable and Southerners have said they will be ready to debate it, perhaps for longer than a week.

This raises the possibility of a double filibuster—on the motion to take up the bill and then on the bill itself.

28 Escape When Plane Crashes

CHICAGO (AP)—A chartered DC-3 airplane, trying to make a landing at O'Hare International Airport in misty weather, crashed into a house late Sunday night, killing the copilot. The pilot and 28 passengers escaped.

The pilot, who with the copilot was trapped in the cockpit about two hours, was reported in critical condition in a hospital. But the passengers, returning from a day of skiing in Michigan, escaped without serious injuries.

The two-engine plane crashed through utility lines and into a home in a residential district in suburban Hoffman Estates. Six persons in the home asleep on the second floor miraculously escaped injury. They were rescued by firemen and hospitalized for shock.

The passengers, 23 men and 5 women, walked from the plane minutes after it plowed through the rear of the two-story bi-level home of Victor Golubski. There was no fire. The plane did not overturn, but part of a wing was ripped off as it landed.

The pilot, Virgil Provost, 40, of suburban Alsip, was rescued by firemen nearly two hours after the plane crashed shortly before midnight. A few minutes later firemen recovered the body of copilot Daniel Jordan of Gary, Ind.

Fire Chief Carl Selka said Provost told him that as he was nearing O'Hare the plane entered a patch of air turbulence. A tower man at O'Hare said he had directed the plane to land when it was eight miles northwest of the airport.

A short time later the pilot radioed the tower that he had lost altitude, from 2,500 to 1,500 feet. The tower then directed the pilot to retain altitude.

In a few minutes, the pilot of a commercial airliner over O'Hare reported to the tower that he had heard another pilot in the air say over the radio, "I'm going down."

The north wall of the Golubski house was caved in by the plane. The house is near several vacant lots.

Golubski 52, said the plane struck the house from the east, plowed through a workshop and garage and stopped in a dining room and kitchen.

"If any of us had been downstairs, we'd probably have been killed," Golubski said. "It came in like a locomotive."

tees plan to operate this week. Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., has served notice that he will make an attempt to shunt the civil rights bill to the Judiciary Committee once Mansfield opens debate.

But Senate parliamentarians say this cannot be done until the motion to take up is adopted.

Assistant Senate Democratic leader Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, who is in charge of the bill, told a reporter he is confident Morse's effort will fail.

Outspoken Black Muslim Quits Group

By JUNIUS GRIFFIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Malcolm X, outspoken Black Muslim advocate of racial separation, has defected from the parent organization to form his own movement to promote "active self defense against white supremacists in all parts of the country."

Malcolm told The Associated Press today:

"I am still a Muslim...I intend to work on my own among America's 22 million non-Muslim Negroes to convert them from non-violence to active self-defense against white supremacists in all parts of the country."

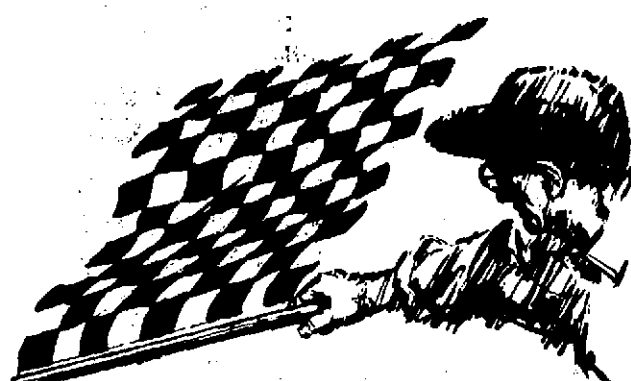

"I want it clearly understood that my advice to all Muslims is that they stay in the Nation of Islam under the spiritual guidance of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad."

"It is not my desire to encourage them to follow me." Malcolm once was considered heir apparent to Muhammad, who makes his headquarters in Chicago. He was head of the sect's New York City Mosque and the group's leading spokesman.

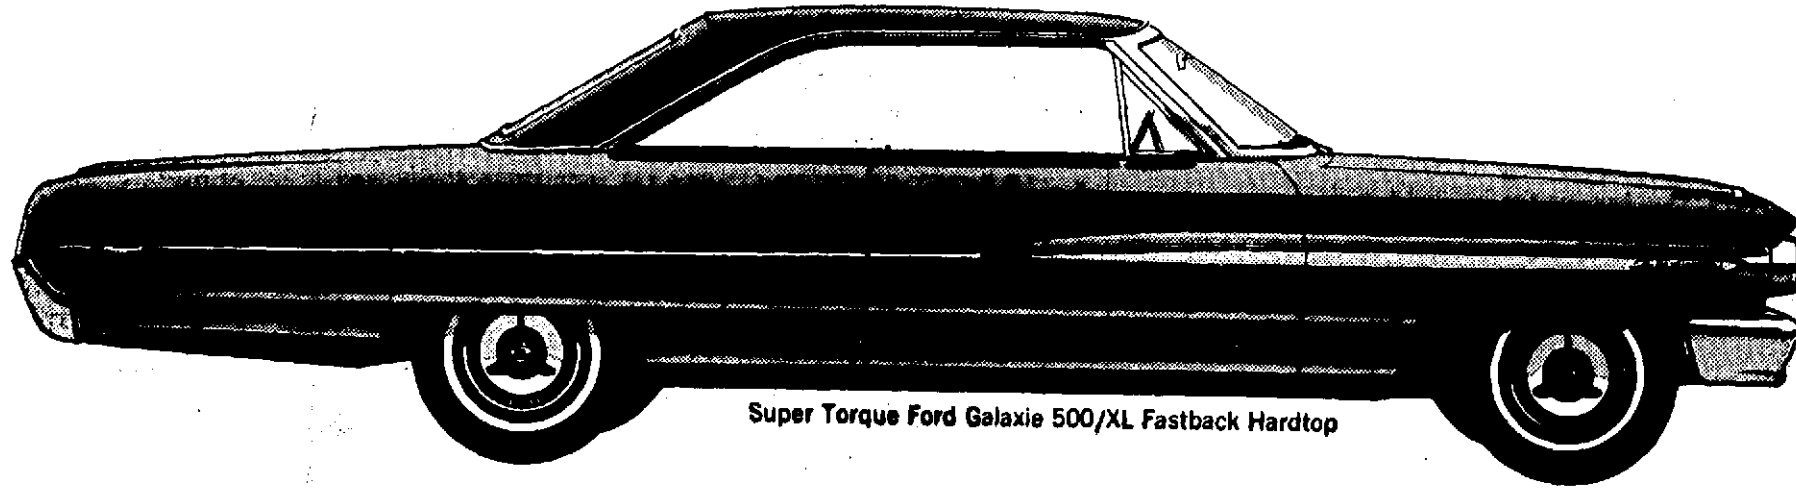

Noted for his bitter verbal attacks on white people, Malcolm was suspended by Muhammad in November after he said in a speech that President Kennedy's death was a case of "the chickens coming home to roost."

YOUNGER CHILD FEELS INFERIOR BUT SIMPLE TREATMENT CURES HIM

By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

I have a letter from a mother whose younger son has a problem. His older brothers can do things so much better than he can, he's acting as if he feels inferior. She writes:

"Dear Dr. Brothers: I've tried to tell his older brothers that they can do things a lot better because of their age, and not to rub in their advantage. Meantime, Dr. Brothers, will you please tell me how should a mother help a younger son who feels left out and overshadowed when it comes to his brothers' interests, games, and activities?"

There is an approach that I've seen at work. It applies at all ages. And it works especially well for younger children who feel unimportant in the presence of their older brothers and sisters.

Let me describe a situation similar to that of your own son. Let's call the small boy Bill. When I first met him through his mother, I could see he felt very shy and inferior. His older brothers, with their age advantage, crowded him out of the picture. He was timid, uncertain, and almost pitiful.

Then I didn't see him or his mother for almost a year. But when I did again, the small youngster was transformed. He was playing with his older brothers and friends, roughhousing with them and returning their taunts one for one. He seemed the picture of poise and confidence.

"How wonderfully Bill's turned out!" I said to his mother. "What happened?"

"Why, don't you know?" the mother replied. "Bill is now an expert."

"An expert?"

"Yes," his mother said, and handed me a small card she had printed, which Bill gives to his friends. On it was the name of the young man and the legend, "Expert in tropical fish."

What had happened was simple. By learning more about one particular thing that others know, the youngster had bolstered up his own sense of self-respect, and then came out the master in his battles with feeling inferior.

As a psychologist, I understood. As long as he'd remained prey to his thoughts of inadequacy, and compared his small knowledge to the superior knowledge of his older brothers, he was a frightened little individual. But as soon as he felt superior in one thing, only one thing, his inferiority feelings began to vanish.

Actually, there are many ways to overcome an inferiority feeling for any of us. But the one of becoming an expert is probably the easiest and quickest of all, and it applies to us at any and all ages.

It doesn't matter too much what subject you choose to become expert on. Just as soon as you become conscious you are endowed with more information on it than most other people have, something wonderful happens to you inside. You become expert all over, in your actions, your bearing, your thinking, and the word "inferiority" begins to move out of your life. And with it moves the unhappiness that such an imagined inferiority always carries with it.

If you have this problem in your family, try it, for a son, a daughter, or for yourself.

WHY BOSS MAY BE CRANK

Do you sometimes feel that your boss is an irritable tyrant? There may be a very surprising reason for your boss's behavior.

Dr. John Todd, a leading British psychiatrist, recently said that a bad-tempered boss is probably sex-starved.

Dr. Todd, writing in "The Medical Press," said one should pity such a person, because undoubtedly he's the hen-pecked husband of the social-climber, or ice-berg, who is prone to carry his grievance to work. At work, the boss can get rid of his irritations and sex frustrations by sounding off at one of his subordinates.

A NOTE TO WIVES

If you're concerned about a possible murderer, don't waste your fears on thugs or second-story men. If you're to be the victim it's much more likely to be an inside job, and its perpetrator no less than your husband.

The result of a three-year sociology survey at Indiana University disclosed that women are done away with by their spouses just twice as often as by desperadoes, gangsters, tramps, burglars, or even maniacs on the loose.

And jilted suitors and infatuated men you leave waiting at the church? They're only half as likely to murder you than if they'd married you.

Tomorrow: What to do about faithless husband.

card chairman Mrs. Cecil Smith and health chairman Mrs. Jacky Willett.

Mrs. Orville Hoelscher, vice-president, read a lovely poem entitled "I Have." The Thrift Garment was won by Mrs. Joe L. Willett, and the meeting was adjourned. A recreation period followed. Refreshments were served to the members, 4 children, and 4 guests, Mrs. Robert Glass of Emmet, Mrs. Elmer Hatch of Texarkana, Mrs. Theodore Cash and Mrs. Lettie Avery.

The next meeting will be April 1 in the home of Mrs. Jacky Willett.

Death of Poll Tax Brings Confusion

By JOHN R. STARR Associated Press Writer

The death of the poll tax, jealously guarded symbol of states rights, has given birth to election confusion in five Southern states.

The annual tax is $2 in Mississippi, $1.50 in Texas, Alabama and Virginia and $1 in Arkansas and therefore accounts for little revenue.

But it is treasured as a symbol of the five states, and four of them probably will continue to require the tax for voting in state elections.

The fifth state—Arkansas—is inclined to forget the tax as a voting requirement, but the state's 1874 constitution may prohibit this.

The 24th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution became law early this year with ratification by the South Dakota Legislature. The amendment prohibits the tax as a requirement for voting in federal elections.

Texas, Alabama, Virginia and probably Mississippi will let those who do not pay the tax vote only for president, vice president, U.S. senator and U.S. representative.

Mississippi has a bill to implement such a dual system pending in its legislature, and Texas, Alabama and Virginia already have set up complicated dual systems.

In these states, the tax must be paid by a person to vote for governor, sheriff, mayor, justice of the peace and numerous other county and local offices.

Arkansas Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett believes the state's constitution requires the tax to vote in state elections. If he courts go hold, Arkansas may also establish a dual system.

But there are strong indications that poll tax amendment to the state constitution will be removed in November 1964.

Texas turned down an anti-poll tax amendment, then allowed 30 days of free registration for persons who wanted to vote in federal elections.

Virginia established its dual system last November. To qualify for federal elections without paying a poll tax a voter must file a certificate of residence six months before the election.

No formal action has been taken in Alabama. But in its Democratic primaries, poll tax payers will get a full ballot; those who have not paid the tax will get only a list of federal races.

At one time, almost all Southern states had a poll tax. All except the five abolished it as a voting requirement by 1954.

More action can be expected in the five states. Virginia's dual system is being attacked in the courts; Texas leaders of the anti-poll tax movement are expected to try again; Alabama must eventually decide how to register those who do not pay the poll tax; and court attacks are likely in Mississippi, which proposes to charge persons who do not pay the poll tax a $1 fee for issuing a voting certificate.

Rebuffs by DeGaulle Are Not New

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—French President Charles de Gaulle's stop-by-stop rebuffs to the United States and Britain are not new. The only difference between De Gaulle now and a few years ago is that he is stepping faster.

His basic policy—his assertion of French independence from American leadership—was already French policy before he was called back to office as premier in June 1958. But he has truly broadened it.

The Associated Press reported on London Thursday night that diplomatic sources said his envoys in various capitals are openly suggesting Western European nations disassociate themselves from the United States in every way possible.

A month after he took office six years ago he announced France would not accept a nuclear test-ban treaty unless it was linked with a disarmament inspection system. This, of course, was a dream of the future.

He said France would make itself a nuclear power. But a year before he became premier French Defense Minister Charles de Gaulle said France would never accept a ban imposed by its allies against French manufacture of nuclear weapons.

He said "we have need of America but America also has need of us."

So De Gaulle was only repeating what was already policy and last year, when he refused to join the American-Soviet-British limited nuclear test-ban treaty, he was only restating an old position.

But De Gaulle for a good while after taking office—he became president for a seven-term in 1959—didn't badger the United States as much as he did later for one obvious, and one possible, reason.

The obvious reason was that he had his hands full trying to bring to peaceful conclusion the Algerian rebellion which had France split in half. He didn't succeed in that until 1962.

It is possible De Gaulle was reluctant to have been as defiant or unpleasant with President Eisenhower, from 1958 to 1961, as he was from 1961 until now with President Kennedy and Johnson.

Eisenhower was an international hero and De Gaulle might have injured himself in an entanglement with the man who led the liberation of Europe. Kennedy and Johnson were unknowns when De Gaulle went to work on them.

Nevertheless, he did badger Eisenhower, too. In 1959 he suggested that France, by destroying the nuclear monopoly of the United States and the Soviet Union, would create a third force in the world and provide "equilibrium."

Also in 1959 he made clear France wanted no part of having its armies integrated with

First Republican in Announcement

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The first Republican to seek a state office this year announced his intentions Saturday.

Carwin Bleidt, 24, a senior at Arkansas State Teachers College, said he would oppose incumbent John Paul Capps for White County representative. Bleidt is the son of Hodge Bleidt, a Searcy auto parts dealer.

He will graduate this summer from the Conway school, where he is majoring in history and political science.

Bleidt said he will be the first republican candidate for a state office from White County in 85 years.

A spokesman for the stage GOP said the party hopes to have 50 candidates for the legislature in the November general election. The party had 21 candidates in 1962, all were beaten.

The number of candidates, the spokesman said, will depend on whether Winthrop Rockefeller runs for governor.

its neighbors' in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. He said France would command its own armies. In 1960 France tested its first atomic bomb in the Sahara.

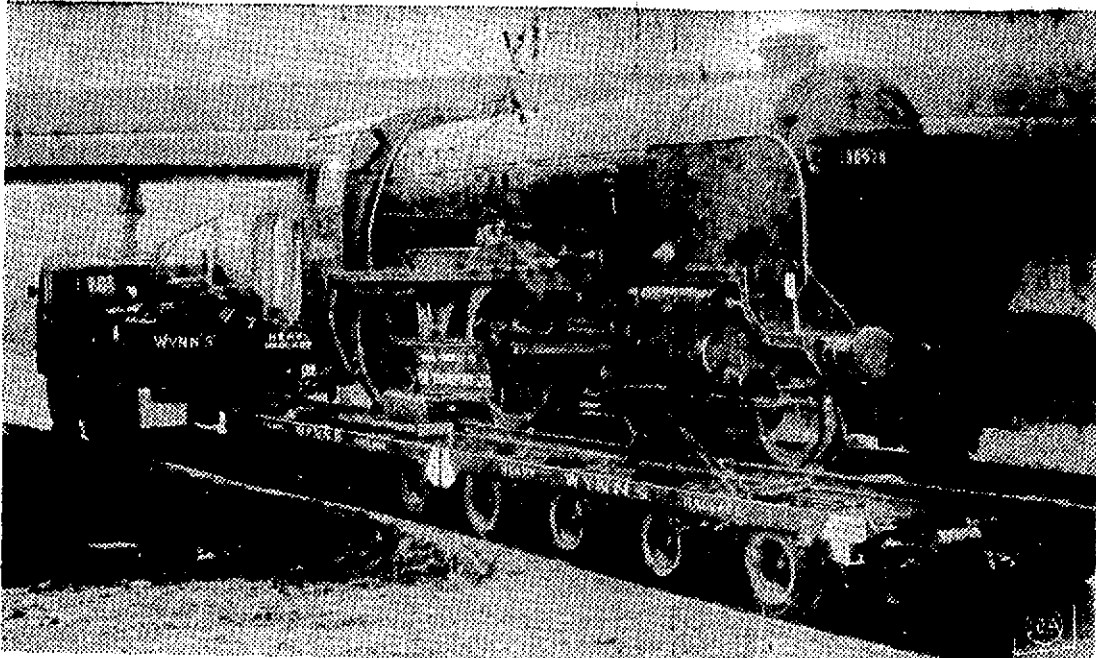

It seemed to come as a surprise to some this year that De Gaulle was stretching across the Atlantic to open up new ties with Latin America, even arranging to visit some of the countries there.

But he had suggested to 20 ambassadors from Latin American nations in 1961 that France and their countries establish a "united and renovated Latin world." So what he is saying now is repetition.

He increased the pace of his independence last year in a triple stroke: by refusing to join the nuclear test-ban treaty, banning Britain from the European Common Market, and proposing the neutralization of Viet Nam.

He offered French help to the very country which France had held as a colony since the 19th century and from which it was driven out in 1954 because it lacked the military strength to hold it.

Johnson was hardly in office before De Gaulle hit him by recognizing Red China. He said this was just being realistic. And he said there could be no peace in Southeast Asia unless China was a party agreeing to it.

Palmer Has Record Going for Him Again

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Arnold Palmer had the record going for him today as he teed off against Gary Player and Miller Barber in an 18-hole playoff for $4,000 in the Pensacola Open golf championship.

Palmer, gunning for his second straight Pensacola Open title and third in five years, has won 11 of his 40 championships on the PGA tour in playoffs. Player has lost every one of the seven playoffs in which he has participated in the United States. Barber is competing in his first playoff.

The 34-year-old Palmer sank a pressure-packed seven-foot putt on the final green Sunday to get into the playoff on the 6,380-yard, par-72 Pensacola Country Club course. It gave him a 69 and a 14-under-par 274, the same scores posted by Player and Barber 15 minutes later.

Time Running Out of the Royals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Time is running out on the Cincinnati Royals' bid to grab the top spot in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division and the Boston Celtics aren't helping much either. The Celtics shoved the idle Royals a full three games back on Sunday by whacking the Detroit Pistons 128-118. With each club having just four games left to play, the Celtics need only a split to clinch their eighth straight division title.

In other games Sunday, New York walloped Philadelphia 140-108, and St. Louis dumped Baltimore 135-117.

Bill Russell hit on seven of 10 field goal attempts and snared 17 rebounds as the Celtics galloped to a 67-65 halftime lead. Boston opened its margin to 22 points in the third period and coasted the rest of the way.

In the Western Division, the St. Louis Hawks, who've been casting covetous eyes on the lead, cut the San Francisco Warriors' margin to one game with their victory.

Woman to Oppose Van Dalsem

PERRYVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Rep. Paul Van Dalsem — who got himself into hot water for commenting on the role of women in Perry County — may have to run against one.

Mrs. Charles Windle of Perryville, chairman of the Perry County Women in Politics club, said a woman has agreed to oppose Van Dalsem in the general election next November.

Loyola Has Run Gauntlet for Big Ones

CHICAGO (AP)—All Chicago Loyola's Ramblers must do for a successful defense of their national collegiate basketball title is run a probable gauntlet of the country's four top teams.

"We think we're as good as anybody," said Rambler Coach George Ireland today in contemplating possible showdowns, in order, against nationally second-ranked Michigan, third-ranked Kentucky, fourth-ranked Duke and top-ranked UCLA.

Loyola begins its NCAA defense Tuesday night against champion Murray State of the Ohio Valley Conference at Evanston, Ill. and Ireland is putting first things first.

"Like the coaching code says, we'll play 'em one at a time, and you only get one shot in this thing," said Ireland, whose ninth-ranked Ramblers finished with a 20-5 record.

An Evanston triumph over Murray State would take Ireland's Ramblers to Minneapolis for a Friday night meeting with Michigan, which captured the Big Ten berth in the Midwest Regional.

The Michigan-Loyola winner probably will face Kentucky in the Midwest title game at Minneapolis Saturday night.

The survivor at Minneapolis goes to the March 20 NCAA semifinals at Kansas City against champion of the East Regional at Raleigh, N.C., which figures to be Duke.

It was the semifinal and final NCAA rounds at Louisville that Loyola caught fire last year. The Ramblers spanked Duke 94-75 and the following night rallied to dethrone favored Cincinnati 60-58 in overtime.

This year's lower bracket finalist at Kansas was expected to be unbeaten UCLA, whose high point in a 25-0 season was a 98-60 conquest of Michigan in the Los Angeles Classic in December.

Calumet Is Taking Aim on the Derby

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Calumet Farm is ready to take dead aim on the Kentucky Derby on May 2 at Churchill Downs, a race the famous red and blue silks have won seven times in 13 tries since 1935.

Mrs. Gene Markey has nominated four 3-year-olds for the 1 1/4 miles of America's most colorful horse race. But her chief hopes for the stable's first victory since Tim Tam won in 1958 are Ky. Pioneer and Kentucky Jug. The other two being trained by Jimmy Jones are Real Well and Full Change.

Of his two royally-bred aces

Jones is highest on Ky. Pioneer, winner of his last three starts including Saturday's $17,900 Hutcheson Stakes at Gulfstream Park. He ran the seven furlongs in 1:24 and finished eased up two lengths in front of Kentucky Jug.

The one-two finish of the Calumet pair, with a $3.60 win payoff, was the highlight of last Saturday's feature races that saw Mongo edge Gun Bow in the East-West battle of the $109,400 John B. Campbell Handicap at Bowie and Mrs. Consistency take one division of the $87,850 San Juan Capistrano Handicap at Santa Anita.

In the other major race of the day, Green Hornet ran away from the favored Bold Commander in the stretch for a three-length victory in the $61,500 New Orleans Handicap at the Fair Grounds.

Black Hawks Aim Guns at Montreal

CHICAGO (AP)—The big bad Chicago Black Hawks are aiming their guns at Montreal next Saturday and Coach Bill Reay feels a victory against the Canadiens could give his club its first National Hockey League championship.

For nearly a month now, every Sunday night the Hawks have found themselves tied with Montreal in total points for first place, but the Canadiens always have had two more games to play, which means a potential of four additional points.

However, aided by phenomenal Kenny Wharram, the Hawks came from behind Sunday night for a 4-3 victory over Toronto and moved two points ahead of Montreal, which played a scoreless tie with New York's scrappy Rangers. In the other game Detroit defeated Boston 5-3.

"A lot depends on what Montreal does," said Reay, "but I can't help feel we can win the title if we defeat them next Saturday."

Wharram scored the winning goal in the final period to break a 3-3 tie. It was his eighth winning goal of the season.

"I'm bushed," said Wharram after the game in which he boosted his goal total to 38, two less than teammate Bobby Hull.

While Wharram, Hull and Eric Nesterenko were scoring the goals, Stan Mikita picked up two points on assists giving him 65 for the season, one more than the Hawk record set by Hull in 1962.

Congress Is Trying to Double Pay

By JAMES MARLOW AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — This economy-talking Congress is getting ready to vote on a $10,000-a-year pay raise for itself: from $22,500 to $32,500, an increase of 44 per cent.

Living costs have gone up only about 15 per cent since Congress last boosted its own salary in 1955. That was also a $10,000 increase, from $12,500 to $22,500.

The measure approved Wednesday by the House Rules Committee, thus clearing it for a vote, would raise the salary of most other federal employees, including Supreme Court justices, Cabinet members and top officials.

All this had the blessing of Presidents Kennedy and Johnson. In his next year's spending budget, which Johnson handed Congress in January, he asked $455 million to take care of such salary increases.

Earlier last year two groups — the National Civil Service League and a special 12-man advisory panel appointed by Kennedy — recommended raises.

One recurrent theme in the push to boost salaries is that present salary scales prevent the government from getting the kind of men needed to run it efficiently.

But today an important House member found an even newer way for Congress to spend more millions on itself. This was Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., the House Banking and Currency Committee chairman.

Patman suggested "Congress needs a vast increase" in the number of its technical consultants and legal and economic advisers. He proposed still another new office building for the 435 House members.

That would be the fourth for Economy was the favorite Republican song last year and this. Before the House passed the tax cut bill last year — it has been passed by the Senate, too, and is now law — Republicans tried but failed to put a string on it: no tax cut unless spending is cut.

When Johnson in January submitted his spending budget for next year — $97.9 billion, which was less than Kennedy's of a year ago — Republicans called it a "figure-juggler's dream."

They announced it could be cut by $6 billion to $8 billion but they said little or nothing about cutting out the $455 million Johnson included for federal pay raises, including raises for members of Congress.

But one Republican who is always urging economy — Rep. H. R. Gross of Iowa — said Wednesday after the Rules Committee approved the pay raise it is "unjustified, inequitable, and extravagant."

Here are some of the other increases proposed by the committee, compared with present salaries:

Vice president (there isn't any), speaker of the House, and justices of the Supreme Court: from $35,000 to $45,000; chief justice: from $35,500 to $45,500; Cabinet members: from $25,000 to $35,000.

Political Candidates

The Star is authorized to announce that the following are candidates for public office subject to action of the Democratic elections in July and August:

For Sheriff & Collector JIMMIE GRIFFIN

For County Judge U. G. GARRETT K. G. "Gent" RATELIFF ORIE O. BYERS GUY GRIGG

For County Clerk J. D. "Dick" TURNGAGE

For Tax Assessor CARTER SUTTON

For Treasurer HARRY HAWTHORNE

For Circuit Clerk JIM COLE

They already occupy two, and a third is nearing completion at an estimated cost running up to $122 million.

Not all members have the glories at the thought of more take-home pay. Looking at the work done by this Congress, which in 1963 was one of the laziest in history, Rep. J. Arthur Younger, R-Calif., said in October that if production was to be the yardstick, "we should be returning part of the salary we are now receiving."

He said the cost of living wouldn't justify an increase of the size being considered.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, long enough in Congress to understand the members, told the Senate that, despite all the talk about Congress being underpaid, "if you came in here with a shotgun, you couldn't get the members of the Senate and House out of the Capitol."

He challenged any member of the Senate to cite "one instance where an appointment to the Supreme Court has been declined by a lawyer because the salary is inadequate."

Economy was the favorite Republican song last year and this. Before the House passed the tax cut bill last year — it has been passed by the Senate, too, and is now law — Republicans tried but failed to put a string on it: no tax cut unless spending is cut.

THE STORY: Charlie Medders is trying to sell some ore from his find in the Arizona hills to an Irish assayer named O'Toole.

street with the news stood goggling—still heaving and puffing—like Charlie was some kind of two-headed freak. And O'Toole, in his enjoyment, was a hard cross to bear. "Reminds me," he said, "of the half starved mouse that got into the corn-crib and stuffed so hearty he couldn't get out."

Medders, looking around wildly, began turning out his pockets, disgorging silver dollars in a desperate attempt to make room for those stacks of gleaming gold eagles—but there just wasn't time. With a last despairing snarl—too hurried even to unload his spleen in the ominous crunch of that approaching tread—Charlie scooped all he could into his up-ended hat and made a staggering bolt for the shop's rear door.

The Irishman, wiping his eyes, looked to be in the final shakes of a belly laugh when Tiberius Jones slammed into the place with a red headed woman practically riding his heels. She had the hard-used appearance of a fortune teller put through the brush by a pack of disgruntled housewives.

Blinking, O'Toole, in a kind of double take, astonishedly returned the girl's appraising stare. Besides being almost painfully young she was, he discovered — in some outlandish gypsyish fashion — extraordinarily attractive. Thus engaged, he did not

Bobcats Down Malvern, Enter State Tourney

By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star SportsWriter

Hope is champion of 4AA. The Bobcats took the District title Saturday night by trimming Malvern on their own court 71-69 in the finals of the District Tournament.

An especially large and very enthusiastic crowd of Hope fans made the journey to Malvern to see the Cats stall a last period rally by the Leopards and edge them out by the narrow margin of one field goal.

The Leopards, confident that they had the crown clinched, didn't count on the determination of the Bobcats. Hope put all five starters into the double figures column to nullify the Terrible Twosome, Chancellor and Stanfield, and take the title. Coach Billy Mitchell brought home his fourth Region 4AA championship trophy in his five years as Bobcat coach. Last year's team had to settle for second after losing to Malvern 63-59.

This Cat win earned them a match with either West Memphis or Paragould Wednesday afternoon at 3:20 in the state AA-AAA tourney in Barton Coliseum at Little Rock.

Hope started off the game sizzling hot. They just couldn't miss. They had discovered how to keep Chancellor from clearing the boards every time. Don't miss a shot.

A stunned Malvern team watched the Bobcats race into a 16-7 command midway in the first. The Leopards weren't stunned for long, however. The score at the Quarter was Hope in front 18-12.

Malvern came back in the Second Quarter with their double-barreled attack — Chancellor and Stanfield. With Chancellor all over the boards, and Stanfield hitting from so far out that he could hardly see the goal, the Leopards edged up to 32-28 at the Half.

The Bobcats countered in the Third Quarter with an alert defense and as few wasted shots as possible. Every shot brought the packed house to its feet, with the greatly outnumbered Hope fans making just as much noise as the Malvern rooters.

Malvern was still as determined as ever and the Cats didn't intend to let it slip out of their grasp now. Every shot had to count.

Points were matched for points for most of the Quarter. Toward the waning minutes, however, Malvern started to drop behind. They trailed 50-40 into the Fourth.

Henley controlled his fourth tip of the game, and the final period began. This was to be the one still to go, the Bobcats began to tell the tale. With 7 minutes freeze At that time the score was 53-44, since Malvern had come by some points through Chancellor. The stall lasted for over a minute before Dan Jones was fouled. He went to the line with a 1-1 shot, and Hope went into a 53-44 lead.

Malvern scored before giving up possession. On a 3-point play they slipped to 55-47. The lead started to look a little thin.

With the Cats still freezing, it was 4:30 to go when Chancellor used his fourth foul on Paul Henley. Hope moved up to 57-49.

Bill Reinhardt added the next Hope tally from the charity line, but only after Malvern had cut down the Hope advantage with Chancellor under the goal and Starkey on the outside. It was now 59-53, still Hope.

The Fourth Quarter, which should have expired hours before, still dragged on with a gigantic 3 1/2 minutes still to go. But then, it happened. What every Hope player had dreamed about all week. Chancellor fouled out. There was much rejoicing.

Johnny Honeycutt wrung it was worth and sacked up 2, to put the Cats out front 61-53. Malvern racked up again.

With 3:05 to go, Henley failed to take advantage of a 1-1 offer, but Honeycutt scooped in the rebound to put the Cats up on the board again. The tally was nullified by a Stanfield goal.

Jerry Burnett racked up 2 from the free toss mark, but Stanfield came right back to score for the Leopards.

Honeycutt then fouled out on Stanfield, and with 1:25 to go, the margin got smaller and smaller until it was 65-61. As if that weren't enough, Malvern intercepted the pass in and again scored. Hope led by 2.

The clock moved ever so slowly. With just over a minute remaining, Burnett missed on a 1-1, but Henley grappled the rebound and shoved it through to put Hope back out to 67-63.

Dan Jones then fouled the omnipresent Stanfield, who racked on the charity shots for 2 points. It was now 67-65.

Less than a minute remained, and many were the fans who envisioned an overtime. Burnett grabbed a Malvern pass, however, and went streaking in the lay way. It was good, and the Hope brought it in, and Ingram tried a long pass to Burnett, who went in for his second important layway. Malvern scored again on a long shot by Stanfield, but they couldn't make up the 4 points they trailed all at once. Malvern bit the dust.

Dan Jones and Bill Reinhardt had 17 each for Hope. Johnny Honeycutt had 15, Paul Henley 12, and Jerry Burnett 10. The Cats hit on 12 out of 15 tries from the charity line in the final period.

Gary Stanfield led the efforts for Malvern with 25, James Chancellor had 23, and Larry Otwell had 10.

Clay Offered Big Sum to Meet Floyd

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Fight promoters has received an offer guaranteeing Cassius Clay $750,000 to risk his heavyweight title against former champion Floyd Patterson.

He also has a "no thank you on the way."

At least, that's the word from Bill Faversham, Clay's manager.

"Not interested," Faversham snapped when contacted in Louisville, Ky., after Bolan said he had wired the offer to the new champion and his manager Sunday night.

Patterson, Faversham continued, "is a very nice young man but probably one of the worst heavyweight champions."

Patterson, as usual, was not immediately available for comment.

Bolan, however, said the 29-year-old two-time heavyweight boss wanted the fight so badly he was willing to sign for the bout without a purse.

"That's one of the reasons I am able to offer Clay so much," he said, and added that "it's the largest guarantee ever offered a fighter."

The promoter, who had a hand in Patterson's last five title fights, said he made the offer after a telephone conversation with Patterson in Highland Mills, N.Y.

In that conversation, Bolan said, Patterson said he would fight "for no purse, just for the opportunity to regain the title."

Bolan said Patterson, a Roman Catholic, "apparently feels

Art Wall Is Back in the Golf Business

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Art Wall Jr., seldom a winner since 1959, when he was named Golfer of the Year, is back in business today after a near sweep of the Caribbean winter circuit.

The 40-year-old pro from Pocomo Manor, Pa., outshot young Jay Dolan in four extra holes Sunday and won the Puerto Rico Open. The victory was Wall's third in four tournaments on the southern swing, giving him the over-all point title.

Wall, Masters champion and leading money winner five years ago, captured the Maracaibo and Bogota tourneys before his sudden death victory over Dolan, 24, of Leicester, Mass., on the new Dorado Hilton course. Art started his comeback — he hadn't won a major tournament since 1960 — by taking the $30,000 San Diego Open in January.

His final-round 76, four over par Sunday almost cost him the Puerto Rico crown. Dolan fired a par 72 and charged from fourth place into a 280 deadlock after 72 holes of regulation play.

Each parred the first three overtime holes before a bogey by Dolan on the fourth opened the door for Wall. He dropped his par putt and thereby pocketed the winner's share of $1,200, and an additional $1,300.

very strongly about" Clay's statements that he is a member of the Black Muslims.

The controversial Clay, 22, won the title when Sonny Liston failed to answer the bell for the seventh round of their title fight in Miami Beach last month.

Plymouth rocks racing world with sweep in Daytona "500"

According to the record book for stock cars in competition, there is no higher average speed for 500 miles than the 154.334 m.p.h. set by a competition-equipped 1964 Plymouth in winning last month's Daytona "500."

Adding to that glory is the fact that two more 1964 Plymouths finished 2nd and 3rd for a decisive Plymouth sweep. That suggests that Plymouths were not only the swiftest cars in the competition, but that they're built to stay in there all the way.

For the millions of racing fans and high-performance enthusiasts across the country, Plymouth is proud of its "high speed" victory at Daytona.
